

Attijariwafa bank and its offshore subsidiary Attijari International Bank (AIB), winners of the «STP AWARD 2019»

Casablanca, July 9, 2020 - It is a double consecration for Attijariwafa bank Morocco and its offshore subsidiary Attijari International Bank (AIB). The two entities have just obtained the prestigious STP AWARD 2019 from Commerzbank AG. Indeed, Attijariwafa bank and Attijari International Bank, offshore bank, have been awarded for the quality of their services in the delivery of commercial payments and international financial transfers.

The STP AWARD instituted by Commerzbank AG, one of the largest financial and banking institutions present in more than 50 countries, rewards every year the world's leading banks that offer the best quality of service in the processing of international financial transactions (payments and transfers).

On this occasion, Ms. Sanaa Drissi-Alami, Head of Trade Finance, F.I. and Correspondent Banking at C.I.B., said: «We are proud to receive the STP AWARD 2019 and we thank Commerzbank very much. This award recognizes the quality of service of our international transaction processing processes, the respect of compliance rules and pays tribute to our teams. Some would say that quality of service is the hallmark of all financial institutions. It is the differentiating element par excellence and the KPI on which our attention and sense of innovation must be constantly focused. As such, we are fully mobilized to meet this challenge on an ongoing basis.»

For his part, Mr. Mohamed Benjelloun, Managing Director of Attijari International Bank declared: «We express our warm thanks to COMMERZBANK for the awarding of this prestigious prize. It is a pride for our teams and our group. It is also a pledge of confidence, the basis of the relationship with our customers and partners. This award is also a challenge in the sense that it encourages us to innovate and continuously improve our quality of service while complying with the increasingly stringent compliance rules imposed by international correspondent banks.»

Created in 1994 in Tangier, AIB is today the leader in the offshore financial zone. It enjoys a solid reputation as a benchmark bank in the zone, and succeeds in weaving a wide network of strategic partnerships with international and supranational financial institutions.

By this double consecration, The Attijariwafa bank group confirms its leadership in terms of service quality with its customers and its international partners.

Press Contact - Attijariwafa bank group

Mrs Ouafaa GHAOUAT

Media Relations Manager

Phone : 00212 647 47 32 90

Email : o.ghaouat@attijariwafa.com